3. Students' Appeal

Students can make an appeal against any judgements by contacting the staff of the Faculty of Liberal Arts on the first floor of Sirividya Building. There they will be required to fill in an Appeal Form. Once obtaining the form, the Faculty will hold a meeting to investigate the case and inform the student of the progress and results if applicable at this stage.

Section 6 Teaching Resources

1. Required Texts

Reference material will be given to students as the need arises. All photocopying costs are to be borne by the student. Students are responsible for bringing the appropriate materials to class to facilitate the learning process.

2. Suggested Materials

None

Section 7 Evaluation and Improvement of Course Implementation

1. Strategy for Course Effectiveness Evaluation by Students

There is an online survey to collect feedback from students at the end of the semester.

2. Strategy for Teaching Evaluation

Classroom observations

Quizzes / exams

3. Teaching Improvement

3.1 Instructors will bring results from the online evaluation to find conclusions and improve teaching and learning.

3.2. Instructors will prepare new teaching materials that have been updated for every semester.

3.3 The English program organizes a meeting once a month, so that instructors can find solutions and improve teaching together.

4. Verification of Standard of Learning Outcome for the Course

In order to determine the achievement of the students, students' evaluation will be based on the scores from class attendance, homework / work / group projects and exams.

5. Revision Process and Improvement Plan for Course Effectiveness

The English program usually organizes meetings both at the beginning and at the end of the semester, so that the instructors in the program can discuss how the programs can adjust its program curricular to meet the needs of the students. In doing so, the instructors will mainly look at the results of the examinations and course evaluations when finding the best ways to adjust or improve the courses.
